ADDITIONAL PASSOVER RESOURCES

Repair the World is honored to be able to share downloadable resources from previous Passover celebrations as alternative ways to engage with the rituals of the holiday, through a lens of service and justice.

Four Questions for Making a Difference from a Distance - In this time of global pandemic, our lives have been disrupted in significant ways and we find ourselves asking questions we may not otherwise have ever thought to ask.
The Four People of the Haggadah - The Haggadah speaks about four sons; one wise, one evil, one innocent, and one who doesn't know to ask. This insert, created in partnership with Jewish Multiracial Network, re-imagines the text as four people on different parts of their racial justice journey and serves as a powerful conversation starter to contextualize what it means to pursue equity in today's world.
Avadim Hayinu – We Were Slaves - Every year at Passover, we remember the story of Exodus. Created in partnership with Be'chol Lashon, this Avadim Hayinu ("we were slaves") insert offers a modern take for the storytelling section of the Passover seder.
Trivia Place Cards - Welcome your guests to their seats with these trivia place cards, created in partnership with Be'chol Lashon, and celebrate Passover rituals from diverse Jewish communities around the world.
Passover Pyramid Cutout - On Passover, we ask ourselves, "What makes this night different from all other nights?" Four Jewish racial justice leaders shared their answers. Assemble it as a pyramid for your Passover table and ask your guests to read their powerful answers.
